Jan In The Words of Her Family

Jan was born in Portland, Oregon. She is married to her husband Jerrey and they have two adult children, a boy and a girl. Before Jan retired, she worked as a nanny. She was also featured in the Oregonian twice. Once was on Valentine’s Day when she and Jerrey were trying to get married, when he was stationed in Germany. The other time, Jan saved a toddler from drowning in the neighbor’s pool. Jan performed CPR on the toddler. Jan is very social. She enjoys listening to music, dancing, square dancing, and camping. Other interests are spending time with her family, day trips, exercise groups, gardening, singalongs, and Bible studies.

Team Member Spotlight

Trinity, Caregiver/Med Tech

I began my career here as a caregiver, and through hard work and dedication, I had the opportunity to grow into my current role as a Med Tech. I’m always looking for ways to improve, take on new challenges, and continue moving forward. I believe in bringing positivity into the workplace and making sure every resident receives the comfort, care, and attention they deserve. I’m also a proud mom to my beautiful son, who inspires me every day. I’m thankful for the experiences, growth, and relationships I’ve gained along the way!
